TERRIFIC ELECTRICAL STORM BRINGS MUCH NEEDED RAIN

A terrific electrical storm which swept over McKean county early Monday and late Sunday night, accompanied by hail did damage of more or less serious nature in the surrounding vicinity.

Although lightning and thunder played havoc with the nerves of Smethport people, little material damage was done, except that everything unattached was swept away by the force of the wind.

At Mt. Jewett the storm seemed to reach the height of its intensity. The hardware store of Thompson & Company was damaged to the extent of about $200. The roof of the home of Mrs. Mary Poulton was ripped partially off, and about $500 damage done. Telephone service was temporarily put out of commission in some places, but the breaks were quickly repaired.

MEETING OF CONOPUS CLUB WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1ST

There will be a big meeting of the Conopus Club held at the Grand Central Hotel on Wednesday, June 1st, at 6:30 p.m. At this meeting J. Clayton Backus will have a detailed account of the expense of operating an electrical transmission line; wiring, etc., from Portville to Smethport, for the borough of Smethport and immediate vicinity, and it is desired to extend a call to all of its members that they come forth to this meeting.

BUCKTAIL POST MEMBERS REWARDED BY SUCCESS

OVERFLOW CROWD ON TUESDAY MAKES SECOND NIGHT NECESSARY—PARADE SLIGHTLY DELAYED BY RAIN—LARGE NUMBER OF OUT OF TOWN PERSONS HERE.

The program of the carnival was repeated on Wednesday night because of the overflow crowd the first night.

Amid laughter and music and joyous clamor, the American Legion Carnival was a tremendous success.

It was a scene that will always be a pleasant recollection.

A cloud of many-hued confetti shimmered in the light of an artificial noon over the heads of a throng of merry dancers swaying to jingling tunes; barkers thunderously announced the virtues of their wares; vaudeville sketches, some musical and charming, others of such comedy as to tempt a smile from an Indian; all combined to make a wholesome revelry—a din of happiness.

All the exuberance of Smethport bubbled brightly to the surface. Democracy ruled on every hand; stranger and sinner were received all cordially alike. Young and old ate, drank and danced together, on a common level of good fellowship.

It was a memorable occasion that will be a fitting part of the history of Bucktail Post. Those few who remained away did themselves an injustice.

Rainfall at the time scheduled for the parade threatened to spoil that interesting feature and perhaps ruin the entire evening. However, the weather man was kind, and the

LOCAL MEN UNITE TO AID THE IRISH

A committee on Irish Relief has been appointed for Smethport. The men who have been named to receive money for the stricken people of Ireland are T. F. Hungville, M. S. Geary, and C. W. Shattuck.

Those interested in the national effort toward an adequate relief fund say that right now the Irish are in and the local committee asks that every fair-minded citizen of Smethport and vicinity donate within their means.

JUSTICE WHITE IS BURIED

Washington May 24.—Edward Douglas White, Chief Justice of the United States, was buried on Saturday at Oak Hill cemetery, Georgetown, with private funeral services.

By order of President Harding all government business was brought to a standstill while the body was being borne to its last resting place, and all American flags in the world where there were American troops or government offices were put at half mast.

Chief Justice White was a friend of rich and poor alike, and both Republicans and Democrats held him in the highest regard.

How many times have I been married? asked the defendant.

"I'm your third wife, Chester," replied the complainant.

"Well, you ought to be ashamed to tell it," declared the prisoner.

zok as Uncle Sam and Mrs. Robert Hamilton as Miss Columbia, was joined by all present who wore costumes. Fairies walked arm in arm with forbidding demons, cannibals made stately partners to milkmaids; periwigs, courtiers, pages clowns and masqueraders of every description were in the brilliant array.

Then as war veterans stood at attention, and civilians uncovered, the audience led by Dr. H. L. McCoy, sang the Star Spangled Banner with patriotic fervor.

The first vaudeville number was a "Flower Dance," under the direction of Mrs. R. C. Sasse, and included: Misses Kathryn Hungerford, Maxine Sasse, Marion Apple, Alene McCarthy, Frances Taylor, Athalia Jones, Leola Hovis, Madeline McCarthy, Holsey Allison, Carl Miller, John Hamilton, Leonard Curran, William Gallip, Francis Hussey, Gerald Denning, and William Cramer.

The second number was a solo by Mrs. John Cather, with "Legionaires" as her selection.

"Farmer Hovins," the principal comedy of the evening followed. It was a rural sketch with the players at their best. Each successive antic produced a full quota of laughter and applause. The characters were: Prof. Stanley Bright as Farmer Hovins; Prof. William Brownell, the wife; Richard Shattuck, the 270-pound infant; Robert Hamilton, Miss Johnson, Miss Nourse and Master Melberront, children.

The Travellers Club sextette was composed by Messrs. John Cather, Scott Redfield, Mary Bosworth, Fred Hungville, Horace Redfield and Lincoln Green.

NEAR DEATH IN CUBA LAKE

A. J. Hyatt, Rescued by Physician and Friend After Canoe Capsized.

A narrow escape from drowning was experienced by A. J. Hyatt, the oil driller, last Sunday afternoon while spending the day with his wife at J. C. Backus' cottage on Cuba Lake.

Soon after he had pulled away from shore in Tod Backus' canoe, Mr. Hyatt discovered that the water was too choppy to make the light craft easily manageable. The canoe was soon caught sidewise between the waves, and capsized about one hundred yards from the bank. Mr. Hyatt hampered by heavy clothing, started to swim shoreward, but with difficulty.

Dr. Tindolph of Olean, and Tod Backus, who had seen the accident and had apprehensively watched the swimmer making laborious progress quickly secured and launched a rowboat. After some little difficulty, Mr. Hyatt was dragged over the side in an exhausted condition. The rescuers worked rapidly for a short while to revive their friend, who soon responded to their efforts.

At present the victim is none the worse for his perilous experience.

The "Dance of the Seasons" included Miss Bouton as Spring; Miss Olmstead as Summer, Miss Hogarth as Autumn, Miss Hamlin as Winter.

The concluding number was a "Hulu-Hula" dance by Miss Geraldine McLaughlin. All the intricate were executed by the youthful performer.

The wiring of the Lyceum was under the direction of the Messrs. Forrest Nourse and Tony Anderson which took the men about three days all told. Too much cannot be said of their pains-taking in getting the building wired to fit the occasion so that each one of the many numbers appearing on the program could be reached without difficulty. It was artistically arranged and shows the ability of both Mr. Nourse and Mr. Anderson. The electrical equipment was loaned to the American Legion by Mr. Clayton Backus.

Rev. Winstedt to Go to New Post at DeKalb, Ind.

Rev. Emil G. Winstedt, of the Swedish Mission Church, will preach his final address next Sunday, before leaving for De Kalb, Ind., where he is to take charge of an important post and a larger congregation.

Deep regret is felt by his congregation at the loss of the pastor. Speaking of his new charge, Rev. Winstedt stated that he was greatly pleased by the cooperation of the local people, and that his stay had been most pleasant. Also that were it not for the advancement that awaited him he would be loathe to leave Smethport.

LOCAL ACTRESS IN LEADING PART OF PLAY IN CHICAGO

Miss Leona Hogarth, Smethport's clever actress, has received another advancement in the world of footlights, according to an article in the Chicago Sunday Tribune.

She will succeed Marion Coakley in the leading woman role in the successful play, "The Meanest Man in the World."

Miss Hogarth's many friends are gratified but not surprised to learn of her advancement, and feel sure that her talent will win her continued success.

A GENUINE "YELLOW" SLACKER LOCAL LIST

The "yellowest" draft dodger yet to be discovered on the local slacker list issued by the War Department is Yee Gat, a Chinaman, who formerly lived at 21 Davis street, Bradford.

The Chinaman's name is, in fact, the only one out of the eleven on the list for McKean County to be found authentic. He is said to left on finding he was to be put into the Army. The remaining ten names are either followed by incorrect addresses, or have never been heard of by persons living in the vicinity.

WEDDINGS.

Amster-Wilson.

A very pretty ceremony took place at the local Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday noon when Miss Mary Amster of Smethport, became the bride of Gene Wilson of Olean. Rev. Arthur Gregson performed the service.

Attired in a gorgeous white satin gown, which her mother had also worn when married a white hat, and carrying a bouquet of roses, the bride who is very popular here, made a charming picture. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Sasso of Olean, wore a dainty white organdie dress with hat to match, and carried roses and sweet peas.

Harry Wilson, brother of the groom was best man. Immediately after the ceremony, the couple left for Olean, where a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom. Later, they left on a wedding trip.

Miss Amster was in training for a time at the Bradford hospital.

The out-of-town guests present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mr. Russell, Mrs. Bertha Kilmer, George Klein, Mr. and Mrs. Swanson and children, and Dana Wilson of Olean.

Badger-Morrison

Miss Viola Badger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Badger, was married to J. Lawrence Morrison, son of Mrs. Dora Morrison on May 25, at Saint Luke's Episcopal church at 8 o'clock a.m. Rev. W. E. Van Dyke performed the ceremony in a charming setting.

Miss Elsie Sherer was bridesmaid, and Mr. Jack Morrison, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride wore a blue suit and carnal hat. She carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore a blue suit and carnal hat, and carried sweet peas.

Both the bride and the groom graduated from the Smethport High School and are very popular here. A host of their friends attended the ceremony.

While they were fellow employees at the Redfield Publishing Company, the friendship of Miss Badger and Mr. Morrison assumed a more tender aspect, which culminated in a quietly announced engagement. Miss Badger's friends held several showers in her honor.

After an extended trip to Buffalo and other points, the newly married couple will reside on King street.

The out-of-town guests present at the ceremony were: Mrs. A. H. Gaffney of Kane and Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Coleman of Salamanca, N. Y. attended the wedding.

They never made a cigarette like this in my day—

The Camel idea wasn't born then. It was the exclusive expert Camel blend that revolutionized cigarette smoking.

That Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos hits just the right spot. It gives Camels such mellow mildness and fragrance!

The first time I smoked Camels I knew they were made for me. I knew they were the smoothest, finest cigarette in the world, at any price.

Nobody can tell me anything different.

Big Bear Shot at Weedville

F. J. Marshall, who has a large aptry in connection with his farm along state road, has suffered considerable loss lately from bears destroying bee colonies, a total of ten hives having been destroyed in four visits from the shaggy denizens of his surroundings. He made a complaint to Game Warden Turley of Weedville and was instructed to watch for the thief and shoot to kill. Mr. Marshall watched several nights, but the bear showed unusual cunning, and evaded vigilance of the watchers, but last Saturday night Mr. Marshall in company with Frank Wehler, were again on the job about 8 o'clock when old Sawtooth bruin made his appearance. Just as he was opening a hive Mr. Marshall let drive and brought down old father bruin with one shot. The animal weighed over 400 pounds. It is to be regretted that bears are worthless for either food or fur at this time of the year, and the carcass will have to be buried.—St. Marys Press.

Bradford Boys Steal Auto, Arrested

Drive to Warren Where Eagle Eyed Police Nab Them

WRECKED CAR AT RAILROAD CROSSING

Two youthful automobile thieves were arrested last night through the efficiency of the Warren police force. Both boys were from Bradford and were in possession of a Studebaker automobile that they took from a street corner in Bradford at 9:30 o'clock last evening. The car was the property of one Mr. Case. The boys arrested gave their names as John Grant, 65 Clarence street, and William Reed, who claimed he boarded in Bradford but his street address was not learned.

The owner of the car discovered that it had been stolen and notified the Bradford police within a short time after the theft. The police at Bradford then a car answering the description of the one stolen had been seen proceeding in the direction of Salamanca and Jamestown. The officers at once notified the police of those cities and also of Warren.

Shortly before 3 o'clock this morning Patrolman Peters saw a car answering the description. He notified Chief of Police Wholebin and pursuit was given. In the "race for life" that followed the car proceeded east on Pennsylvania avenue, and at a point near Lacey's switch attempted to turn into the Park road, but it became confused and followed the street railroad track for 30 feet with the result that he car was put out of commission. The boys were apprehended and taken to police headquarters. On the seat of the car beside them a .38 calibre revolver was found. It is said the weapon did not belong to the boys and Warren police are wondering how they came into possession of it.

HANDY'S BRIDE IS TURNED OVER TO FATHER

Olean, May 21.—Bride of six weeks, Mrs. Anthony E. Carrigan, after being detained in police headquarters since early Saturday morning, was turned over by the police to her father yesterday afternoon. With her father and a brother who came here, the girl wife of a man hunted for burglary operations in this section, went back home.

Mrs. Carrigan was not under arrest here, but police detained her after she was found in the rooms in the Kinwood, after the attempted burglary of the wholesale tobacco and confectionery store in East Sullivan Street. She was a Miss Williams, of Johnsonburg, before her marriage to Carrigan in Youngstown, O., March 23.

Clark McClain, alias George Munford, 17 years old, of Corry, Pa., arrested when he attempted to break into the Sullivan Street place, was turned over to Salamanca authorities, who had the goods on him for two store burglaries, while Olean police could only place an attempted burglary charge.

Carrigan is still at large, but police expect his capture in the dragnet of several miles radius set for him. His description is in the hands of every police department in this section.

RESISTED ARREST: HAD LOAD OF LIQUOR

Olean, May 21.—Benjamin Landau, 35 years old, No. 133 Mortimer Street, Buffalo, arrested on a charge of driving a truck without a tail light, had a load of whiskey, it was learned when he reached the police station last night. Arrested by Sheriff Raymond T. Mallory and Police Chief John C. Dempsey, Landau did everything possible to get away from the trip to the station. He offered $10 for the payment of fine for the motor law violation and then after the officers ordered him to follow their automobile he attempted to slip through a side street. Bullets fired into the air by the chief and sheriff persuaded the Buffalo man to hit back to the straight road.

Landau had three big jugs and ten cases of liquor in the truck, he had the jugs in bags and the bottles in baskets, boxes and chicken crates.

He was driving a high speed truck. He is charged with illegal conveyance of liquor.

OIL BURNS ON WATER

Olean, May 21.—There was a spectacular fire along the Olean railroad yards, yesterday. Oil on the surface of the water was ignited by a spark from a locomotive, and the flames spread to the banks. The stream and the banks were ablaze when the firemen arrived. The flames were extinguished with chemicals.

BETULA MAN STOLE OVER TON OF HAY

It Took Three Weeks to Remove Hay But Outfit Kept Steadily at Job Although in Plain Sight.

County Detective Allison told a good one Friday morning while in town. He said that a few days ago he had been obliged to arrest a man for stealing one and one-half tons of hay, which he removed in a gunny sack; the operation taking him three weeks time.

D. T. Green, of Betula, was the culprit and he will go on trial at Smethport on June 6. He stole the hay from A. L. Sedonia of Norwich and was seen by different parties making the theft. When accused of the deed by the county detective, he confessed.

County Detective Allison thought that Green had an awful lot of patience to be able to remove nearly two tons of hay in a sack, that probably did not hold more than 25 pounds and move it some distance at that. —Bradford Star

SOLICITATION TO BEGIN TODAY FOR IRISH RELIEF

Volunteers Will Visit Merchants And Others—Treasurer to be at Commercial Bank Monday, Tuesday And Wednesday Nights.

The executive committee in charge of the Irish Relief Fund has completed its arrangements and the work of soliciting will begin today. A number of citizens in sympathy with the cause have volunteered their services to be used in any way that may be directed. The several soliciting committees will call on the merchants in the business sections of the city, the manufacturers and others.

It is not the intention to make a house to house canvass of the city, and it may not be possible for the solicitors to see personally all who wish to help.

In order, however, to afford all an opportunity of giving, the treasurer of the fund, John R. Lavens, will be at the Commercial National Bank on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from 7 until 10 o'clock, to receive subscriptions. Checks should be made payable to John R. Lavens, treasurer.

The local committee is working in conjunction with the state committees, whose headquarters are at Pittsburgh. The funds are remitted through the national headquarters, which are at New York, to the Irish White Cross Society which is neither political or sectarian, and are distributed impartially.

To you who are reading thousands are making an appeal for food, clothing and shelter.—Bradford Era.

GOVERNOR'S SIGNATURE INCREASES AUTO FEES

Harrisburg, May 21.—An increase of about 100 per cent in license fees and some changes in connection with classifications are made to state motor vehicle provisions under terms of the Woodruff bill approved by Governor Sprout last night. The bill establishes solid and pneumatic tire classes for registration, the latter being allowed a speed four miles greater than the solid tire of their classes.

Vehicles weighing less than 4,000 pounds are to be charged at the passenger car rate, with a minimum of $15 per year. In addition there are new lighting regulations which require candle power tests. Municipalities are allowed to establish zones where no lights will be required for parking and must erect signs bearing names of boundary lines. Cars when parked in unspecified zones must show one white light in front and a red light in rear.

JEWELERS IDENTIFY STOLEN GOODS

Olean, May 21.—Union City, Pa., was the town where Anthony E. Carrigan and Clark McClain stole the jewelry found in three rooms in the Kinwood last Saturday.

Jewelers from the place came here and identified practically every article of jewelry, including a number of watches and bracelets, recovered by Olean police.

The Union City stores were robbed the night of May 2. Silk hosiery and silk shirts found in the rooms were claimed by Samuel Kohn, a Salamanca merchant, whose place was robbed.

Anthony E. Carrigan, 23 years old, of New Castle, Pa., is still at liberty. Clark McClain, 17 years old, of Corry, Pa., is a prisoner in the county jail in Little Valley, awaiting grand jury action in the Salamanca burglary.

They were surprised here last Saturday when they were breaking into the Donolan Brothers wholesale tobacco store in East Sullivan Street. Three .45 automatic revolvers, recovered by police and, according to McClain, stolen in the State Armory in Corry, were taken back by the Union City chief of police.

BODY OF FRANKLIN LANE CREMATED

Chicago, May.—The body of Franklin K. Lane, former secretary of the interior, who died in Rochester, Minn., yesterday, was cremated here today and the ashes will be taken to the top of El Capitan Peak in the Yosemite Valley, California, and scattered to the winds in compliance with a request made by Mr. Lane prior to his death.

Relatives of Mr. Lane explained the unusual request by saying that he had spent much of his life in the Yosemite region and had grown to love it so much that he wished his remains to be taken there when he died.

The body arrived here this morning from Rochester and was immediately taken to Graceland Cemetery for cremation. There were no funeral services—another request of Mr. Lane's—and only the immediate family attended the cremation. The ashes will be taken west immediately, it was said.

Crosby News

The community was greatly shocked last Thursday afternoon, when the news came that Mrs. Charlotte Mallquist had very suddenly dropped dead on the lawn of Mr. Lawrence Herzog as she was leaving the cemetery, after decorating her husband's grave. She will be greatly missed as she was a great worker in every organization.

Mr. Edmund Whitelaw spent a portion of last week in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Peterson of Mt. Jewett spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Wilcox.

Mrs. Tekla Troidson was a Smethport caller last Friday. Miss Mildred Wilcox is spending some time with Mrs. Florence Hanson of Colegrove.

Mrs. Hannah Edmunds spent last week with Mrs. John Swarts of Port Allegany.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kilcoin of Allegany, N. Y. spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Wilcox.

AUTO TURNS TURTLE INTO TONESTA; KANE MAN INJURED

Five persons, three men, one of whom is a Kane resident, and two children, experienced narrow escapes Monday afternoon when the Ford in which they were riding struck a rut, left the road and rolled completely over, landing on all four wheels in 18 inches of water in the Tionesta Creek at a point near Porkey. The Kane man was Wilson Dodge 25, who resides at Clay and Groves streets.

The two children were thrown clear of the car. It is said the embankment is about 25 feet high. The top of the car was up and its ish responsible. It is believed, for the fact that the occupants were not all killed.

MAIL PLANES TO LAND ON POSTOFFICE ROOF

Chicago, May 21.—Airplanes carrying mail will land on the roof of the new government postoffice to be erected here, officials announced.

The cargoes will be conveyed to trains or motor trucks via or tunnel cars.

What is believed to have been an attempted holdup was accidentally frustrated shortly after 7:30 o'clock this morning because Miss Julia Moynihan forgot to turn the latch on the O'Day Millinery Shop door after she entered. She was scarcely inside when she heard someone trying the door and turned to see an unkempt man of probably 50 years endeavoring to get in. When he saw her he made a face and turned. She stepped outside and looked up and down the street but the stranger had disappeared in the twinkling of an eye. He was very poorly dressed, and his vicious face bore several days' growth of grey and black whiskers. From every appearance he was a hard-boiled guy. Miss Moynihan resides on the Highland road about three miles from Kane and comes to the city on the morning train on the B. & O. that runs out to James City and return. —[Kane Republican]

MEMORIAL DAY.

Hang out a flag on Decoration Day. Honor and reverence belong to the dead.

Glory unstinted and unalloyed to the hero.

On this day set aside for the commemoration of men who died in a noble cause—that of their flag—one is reminded of a sea of white crosses that grow in France out of soil sowed with the hearts of World War noble men who sacrificed their all; Gettysburg and the Wilderness in the Civil War; Bunker Hill and Yorktown in the Revolutionary War. Heroes there were in all these conflicts. Men who dared fate and chanced all on a single purpose which to them meant more than life.

They are the ones who now make it possible for the flag to wave proudly and unblemished; those who laid the foundation of a great country or who have saved that grand institution in time of need; those who have crushed all tyrants that have sought to undermine it.

It is good that such men have lived.

Hang out a flag.

MADAME CURIE

Madame Curie is visiting in the United States. The news concerning wealthy women of tarnished reputation, engaged in filthy divorce suits, fades into insignificance beside this simple item.

Madame Curie is not beautiful, as beauty is measured ordinarily. She wears plain, almost shabby clothing. She is so poor that she could not afford to buy even a half-grain of the radium which she discovered and with which she is especially fitted to make further research. Yet because of what she is and what she has done, she outranks all the beauty and wealth and idle discontent.

Madame Curie made her great discovery while working beside her husband, helping him in his profession. Since his death, she has carried on the work which is the noblest memorial he could have. She has asked nothing from the world, but centered all her thought upon giving to it. She brings with her to America her two daughters, glad that they may have the opportunity to see this country and its people.

"I often wonder what the winners buy, one-half so precious as the thing they sell," said Omar long ago. Today, what can America and its people offer to Madame Curie one-half so precious as the gifts which she has given the world, and of which the results of her scientific research are the smallest part? —[Ocean Herald.]

HITS AT RELIEF FAKERS

Washington, May 24.—That much money collected throughout the country for soldier relief is being diverted to purposes other than those stated by the collectors is alleged by Representative Johnson of South Dakota, one of the Republican leaders of the House who would protect the soldier from exploitation. In a resolution he declares that:

"Whereas there are many organizations in the United States collecting money and attempting to collect vast sums of money from the public at large to be used for the relief of disabled soldiers and for the purpose of influencing Congress in the passage or rejection of legislation affecting ex-service men, and

"Whereas charges are made and there is reason to believe that much of the money collected to influence legislation is collected to influence legislation is collected subreptitiously and without the knowledge of Members to Congress and the general public that such money is being collected and used, and that large sums of money purported to be collected for the relief of disabled ex-service men are being diverted from their original and lawful purpose; Therefore be it

"Resolved, That the select committee of five members of the House appointed by the Speaker of the House by virtue of authority already given shall investigate and procure all facts relevant to the collection and expenditure of all sums of money for the purpose of influencing legislation or for the alleged relief of ex-service men."

PREFERENCE FOR SOLDIERS

Washington, May 24.—Senator Golding of Idaho, the new Republican colleague of Senator Borah, would help the American soldiers who participated in the war against Germany by putting through Congress a bill to give preference right of employment on construction work on United States reclamation projects to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines.

The Gooding measure provides: "That not only men, but also women who served in the Army or Navy of the United States in the war with Germany and have been honorably separated or discharged therefrom or placed in the Regular Army or Naval Reserve shall have preference in employment upon such projects constructed by the United States Reclamation Service: Provided, that they are found to possess the capacity necessary for the proper discharge of such duties: Provides further, that the rights and benefits conferred by the bill shall not extend to any person who having been drafted for service under the provisions of the Selective Service Act shall have refused to render such service or to wear the uniform of such service of the United States."

SOCIALISM IN COLLEGES

We rather expect that there will be a considerable storm of protest on the part of Socialists and those near-Socialists who masquerade as Liberals against the announced purpose of the National Security League to establish branches in a number of universities and colleges. The movement will probably be denounced as propaganda which should have no place amid freedom of teaching. But in fact there is convincing reason for the doing of precisely such a work, disclosed by the reports or the boasts of the Socialists and Liberals themselves.

Thus the Intercollegiate Socialist Society claims that it has active branches in no fewer than thirty-eight leading institutions of higher learning, and the Intercollegiate Liberal League was recently organized at Harvard by representatives of twenty-seven such institutions. Of course these organizations are not formed just to play tidily-winks or to "root" for the football team. It would be preposterous to pretend that their object was not propaganda. Indeed they very generally admit that such is the case, and even boast of the success with which they are meeting.

Now we would not arbitrarily suppress or prohibit Socialist organizations in college. If the boys want to form them, let them go to it. But we would certainly claim for anti-Socialist organizations an equal right of existence and of activity, and we would commend the National Security League for camping right upon the trail of the Socialists, and establishing a branch in every institution in which a Socialist organization is found. Men should surely be as free to teach patriotism as sedition; as free to study and work for maintenance of the American system as to seek its overthrow. —[Harvey's Weekly.]

An inspiring exhibition of heroism in behalf of humanity was presented by the great company of persons who offered themselves the other day as subjects to be experimented upon in the quest for a serum against scarlet fever. United States soldiers volunteered for such service many years ago in the campaign against yellow fever, and thus won everlasting and grateful remembrance as pure and high as any won on the field of battle. Now civilians of both sexes have been eagerly offering themselves in at least equally dangerous work. That is the spirit which makes for the realization of the prophecy of Pasteur the Great, that we shall one day cause all communicable diseases to vanish from the earth. —[Harvey's Weekly.]

Complaint is made that Government clerks in the Executive Departments are underpaid, and from the salary figures which are cited we are inclined to think that they are. On the other hand there is complaint that there are far too many clerks employed, and we are inclined to think that that also is true. A smaller number of employees, at higher salaries, seems to be the rational solution of the problem. —[Harvey's Weekly.]

THE WORST BOY IN THE VILLAGE

"Beatenest boy I ever see!
Careless cut-up, lawsey me!
Seemed to me he used to set
Thinkin' up new didos, yet
Somethin' in them eyes o' blue
That he allus turned at you.
Would a' made you love the lad
If he'd been jist twice as bad."

"Mind me of 'canker-gum,'
An' about as troublesome!
I allus like them things 'cause they Feel good when they've gone AWAY.
Like I allus did enjoy
Visits from that taral boy—
Liked the rest an' real content
That allus folliered when he went!"

Didoes? Well, I reckon so!
Wa'n't no monkeyshines that go
But was that boy's SPECIALTY!
Shocked this hull community
With his capers? Time 'n again
Made our hair stand up, but then,
Wa'n't no better boy to do
Errands, or more willin' to!

Teacher allus liked him best—
Favored him from all the rest—
"Specially the one that died
'Fore her term was up, she tried
Hard to tame him! I reckon she Would'a smiled if she could see
That wild boy an' what he does
The mornin' that her funer'l was."

Day of her funer'l was, the town
Wa'n't awake when he come down
Yonder lane, his two arms jest
Full o' flowers she liked best—
Seemed to know her favored ones;
Then he dropped 'em down an' runs—
Left 'em on her winder shelf—
Posies that he'd picked himself.

Seems like stories allus tell
Boys like, he was turn-out well—
"Ceptin' him, an' he, I guess,
Wa'n't cut out fer no success;
Allus been a wild boy through
Life, an' same old didoes, too;
Still the village can't forget—
Everybody loves him yet."

Realization.
Faith is "What is hoped for." The best-known Book declares—Not, "Hoping for what's hoped for." Or, "Perhaps He'll hear our prayers." Faith is getting what you've faith for. It's just having what you crave—There's immediate achievement For the soul that's firm and brave.

—St. Christopher Guild held a picnic luncheon Friday at the Diesel Hollow camp.

—A man bought six paddles at the Carnival. Said he had enough wood for next winter.

—New ads for this week are as follows: Fiske Tire Company and Dr. Willis Ostrander, Corner Drug Store.

—The morning after the Carnival was a fearfully cold, gray morning after—especially for the fortunate (3) few.

—Strange the chances some persons will take. A demure little fairy at the Carnival was actually vamping a devil.

—If a "dry" vote had been taken at the Carnival, we venture to say that Mr. Volstead would not have gotten quite all.

—Don't forget to visit the Corner Drug Store—$2,000 worth of new Rexall goods just received, and the Doctor is always ready and willing to treat you with courtesy.

—Progress on the State Road from points near Bradford to Smethport through Farmers Valley during the last week was very good the men laying about 3,000 feet which constitutes about one-half mile in length.

—We have a new drug store in town—they call it the "Corner Drug Store"—take a stroll in and look things over. The soda fountain is in operation—walk in.

—The Rose Hill cemetery fund has been substantially benefited by about $200 in the last week for the purpose of grading, planting trees, and the fixing of the roads and to extend a pipe to get water for use for the cemetery.

—The change of ads for this week are as follows: United Tire Company, Service Garage Company, R. O. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Lindholm Grocery, Star Theater, Kreinson's, Bradford, Caloric Furnace Co., Smethport Garage, Nordyke & Marmion cars, Scoville, Brown & Co.

—Two aeroplanes heading north passed over Smethport last Thursday. They were flying rather low and at high speed. It is a matter of conjecture whether they were mail planes that strayed off their usual routes or whether they were from Bradford.

—It is probable that the Boy Scouts would go to Camp Meade, Maryland, some time between August 1, and August 30. This is a Citizens' Military Training Camp and the Boy Scouts will receive instructions while there in scout work and drills, etc. There are about 35 boys in Dr. Livermore's squad.

GARD YOUNG HAS FINE CHANCE FOR RECOVERY

Gard Young, an employee of the Smith Brothers grocery store, is critically ill at the Bradford hospital and his mother and sister, who have arrived here from their home in Smethport, have been given very little encouragement for his recovery, yet it is said that he has one chance.

The young man has been a patient at the hospital for almost three weeks suffering from internal injuries, but after being quite ill for several days, it was believed that his condition was improving and he intended to leave the hospital Monday. Last evening at 5:30 o'clock he was taken suddenly with severe pains in the stomach and it was found that he had an internal rupture, which necessitated an operation, which he underwent at 10 o'clock Monday night. His family was summoned here last evening.

The young man received his injuries it is said, by being thrown from an automobile, when it is reported, he struck his abdomen on a stump alongside the road. He was taken to the hospital the next morning following the accident.

NEWS from the WORLD of SPORTS

Smethport 15; Bradford 12.

The Smethport fair grounds was the scene of a bitter struggle Sunday, when the Bradford Olympics clashed on the ball field against our sturdy home boys with the result of another win, 12 to 15. There was some tall talking, something was said, somebody said something, more was said and then bang went the ball to all corners of the park—each side had a wonderful day with the stick and many a clash in regards to rules but everything ended well. The crowd went wild as there was plenty of excitement to give the necessary thrills to a good old fashioned baseball game—the hit and run game.

The Bradford Club secured a comfortable lead in the early innings, but along in the latter part of the contest the Smethport sluggers overtook and passed the visitors in the sixth inning and great was the joy of the 300 rooters that came out to see the contest.

The team will surely get under headway with the able assistance of Coach Tull and before the season shall have gone far, Smethport will be putting forth a brand of ball that few teams will equal in this county. Gird Potter will get out just as soon as business will permit him doing so, which will be a great deal of strength added to the team.

A new man by the name of Nagle pitched four innings of this contest for Smethport and his work was a revelation to the fans. After Mr. Nagle has the time to get his control and do a little pitching, together with his experience some good things can be expected of him. However, he showed up strong in the time that he was on the mound.

The Smethport band rendered a concert that proved to be much enjoyed by all, under the leadership of Editor Russell Lindsay.

Rixford defeated Portville at Rixford Athletic grounds Sunday by a score of 9 to 2. There was some phenomenal fielding on both sides. The real feature of the game was the pitching of Andrews of Rixford, who succeeded in fanning no less than 17 of his opponents.

WHEW! EVEN MIGHTY BABE CALLED TO TASK

Boston, Mass., May 23.—Un- less Babe Ruth keeps in condition and observes the training rules of the New York Americans, base ball team he will be indefinitely suspended by Miller Huggins. It was reported here that Huggins had issued an ultimatum to "Babe" and told him that he could not play with the Yankees unless he attended strictly to business and reported to the hotel at a certain hour each night. While Ruth already has made 12 home runs this season, and is ahead of his last year's record, his fielding has not been up to the standard.

MERITS OF PACKERS' HANDLING NEW ZEALAND LAMBS

New Zealand slaughters about eight million sheep and lambs annually, mostly lambs and the bulk of this product, which is always shipped in frozen condition normally goes to England for consumption. During the war on account of the interruption of steamship service, caused by the need of using all available boats for troops and munitions, there were no refrigerator boats available to carry lambs and mutton from New Zealand to England or to any other country. The result was an accumulation in New Zealand. The British Government purchased the entire output of New Zealand lamb and mutton during the period of the war, and erected freezer storage warehouses to hold this product in New Zealand.

At the close of the war refrigerated vessels again became available and the shipment of frozen lamb and mutton from New Zealand to England was resumed. The British Food Ministry still controls the movement of this stock of New Zealand lamb, including the production of 1920 which was bought by the British Government. After boats were available it naturally moved product which had been in storage the longest to England first, but with such a large accumulation on hand, there was more than England could consume. This forced the British Ministry to find another outlet and as prices were fairly high in the United States it decided to ship the 1920 production of New Zealand lambs and mutton to this country, thus reducing the stock in New Zealand and converting it into cash.

In the spring of 1920 several boats were definitely booked to carry lamb and mutton from New Zealand to the United States; even the names of the boats and the definite dates for sailing were announced. Swift & Company did not buy any of the first cargoes, except a few scattering lots that we obtained from other dealers after the lambs had arrived in this country. Because of our wide-spread distribution system and because of our facilities for holding frozen meats we can spread the distribution of this imported product in such a way as to keep prices from fluctuating as much as they otherwise would. We can market freely when there is a scarcity of a domestic product and we can market in more limited quantities during a period of heavy domestic receipts such as occur during the "Range Season." We are also able to distribute this frozen product in different markets, according to changing demands, so that it will have as little effect as possible on the market for domestic lambs, in which we, as well as the sheep raisers, are vitally interested.

Although not generally realized, it is nevertheless the fact that the decrease in the value of pelts and furs plus the increase in expenses of slaughtering and marketing amounts to 4 1/2 cents a pound on live lambs today as compared with one year ago. The principal reason for this is the great decrease in the price of wool. This means that live lambs selling at 12 1/2 cents per pound in Chicago now cost us as much dressed as the same lambs at 17 cents a pound a year ago.

As long as it was inevitable that this New Zealand lamb, shipped by the British Government, was coming to this country any way, we believe that it has been better for both the producer and the consumer for us to handle as much of it as we could, because we can give it broader distribution, and because we can help to avoid demoralization of market conditions which result from periods of very low prices followed by periods of very high prices. Neither the consumer nor the producer gains anything by abrupt declines in prices caused by temporary over-supplies only to be followed by sharp increases in prices due to temporary shortages. We want the live stock producers to realize thoroughly that this product would be coming into the United States even if the large packers were not handling it. There are many channels through which it can be sold and it was only after realizing this situation that we decided to handle it.

It should also be thoroughly understood that the present depression in the prices of live sheep and lambs is not due alone to importation of foreign lamb, but to a large extent to the radical decline in the value of wool and other by-products.

It was the opinion of several of the sheep men at the meeting that the enactment of the proposed emergency tariff legislation would be effective in preventing further importations of New Zealand lamb. It was also pointed out that prior to the war England had absorbed the entire production of New Zealand lamb and with the utilization of the surplus accumulation during the war, there is little reason to suppose any considerable amount of New Zealand lamb will find its way to our markets.

The value of quality and condition in marketing lambs was convincingly demonstrated by a chart which showed that from August to December 1920 choice to Fancy Spring lambs sold for an average price of 12.77 per hundred on the Chicago market—medium to good lambs sold for 10.4 per cwt. during the same period, while the average price of culls was only 8.37 per cwt. or less than 2-3 of the price realized for the best market grade. McKean County farmers have been offered a premium of 2 cents per pound for lambs finished on rape—a convincing evidence of their superiority to ordinary pasture fed lambs.

Most people haven't a good breakfast until they have had a cup of good coffee. Heart's Delight touches the spot. It costs only a trifle more than inferior coffee, and the satisfaction is worth it. Try Heart's Delight and be convinced. adv21w2

THE U. S. ROYAL CORD

A famous tire—and a famous tread. Acknowledged among motorists and dealers alike as the world's foremost example of Cord tire building. Always delivering the same repeated economy, tire after tire, and season after season.

The stripe around the sidewall is registered as a trade-mark in the U. S. Patent Office.

How you can measure tire value in 1921

OFTEN it's surprising the number of different tire views that come out in a chance talk at the curb or in the leisure of a friend's garage.

Almost every day you come across the man human enough to believe he can outguess the cut-price tag on "job-lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks."

His opposite is the hard-pan car owner who sticks year in and year out to a standard brand as the only rational economy.

Many will remember the scarcity of U. S. Tires last year.

A hardship at the time, but a benefit now. There are no U. S. Tires to be worked off—no accumulations—no forced selling of any U. S. brand—no shipping of tires from one part of the country to another to "find a market."

There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches. Each one gets its share of U. S. Tires. There is a broad, constant, even distribution of U. S. Tires always going on from these Branches to the dealer.

Buy a U. S. Tire anywhere—in a community of 500 people or even less—and you get a fresh, live tire of current production—with all the original service and mileage the factory put into it.

The owner of a medium or light-weight car stands on equal ground with every other car owner.

Any United States Tire is a universal full money's worth—backed up with a leadership policy of equal quality, buying convenience and price for everybody.

Find Moonshine Still Completely Equipped

Hazleton, May 17.—Deputy Sheriff Stoltz and Officer Michael Laputka of Freeland borough Monday evening, raided a moonshine stronghold in Sandy Valley, Luzerne county. Henry Knattin of Wilkesbarre, was captured while a companion made his escape in the woods. The still, which was complete in every detail, was dismantled and brought to Freeland. The outfit valued at $2,000. Pipe lines were laid up a mountain side from the still to a spring from where the water supply was obtained. The still was concealed in a lonely section of the valley. Federal officials will be called in on the case.

ON THE SANCTITY OF BEING ONE'S SELF

"I set my own fashions, and I don't care what anybody else thinks about them. I make sure I am right then go ahead. I don't feel called upon to guess what the other fellow is going to do; I make him get out of the way by simply insisting upon my own rights. I don't want anything, that I'm not entitled to, but I do want my own."

So declared the Pontificator, mightily pounding his knee the while.

"I don't believe in this soft, place-yielding policy that lets the other fellow elbow into a place in the line. Fearless in divinity is the most precious thing in the world. The strong man goes ahead 'on his own' and sets the pace. The rest of the crowd will always give way to the man who knows his rights and without hesitation exacts them."

Well, he heard the other day of a man in Illinois or Maine or Arizona or some where who felt that way. In his business he laid down the rules and permitted no deviation for the peculiarities of individuals. He scrupulously acknowledged the rights of others, but as scrupulously insisted upon his own. He knew the rules of the road and obeyed them. He knew the speed limit, kept his eye on the traffic cop, and put out his hand at stops and turnings; but gave no margin of mercy or allowance for those who were too ignorant or too indifferent or too reckless to bother about the rules. He wasn't interested in the personal equation of anybody but himself.

He died not long ago, somewhat unexpectedly, and in the cemetery of his home town there's an epitaph over a grave reading something like this:

Here lies the body of Jonathan Hay, Who died, maintaining the Right of Way

He was right, dead right, as he sped along; But he's just as dead as if he'd been wrong.

—New York Evening Post (Ind.)

SMILES

IT'S DEAD CERTAIN—

That the more sunshine we help put into other folk's lives, the more we'll have in our own. Helping others help us.

A Parable of the Good Housewife.

A certain man went down from home to business and fell among thieves. And they stripped him and robbed him and departed, each to his own home, leaving him apparently so far as the market was concerned a dead one. He, too, went home. And there he found a wife, the sort of wife that only a good God can give a man. The housewife bound up his wounds with her sympathy, and she poured into them the oil of understanding. And she set him once more on the highway of inspiration and high purpose. And on the morrow the man again went down to business, determined and indeed empowered to conquer. It was quite another day!

The most marvelous fact about life's successful men is not that there are so many, but that there are so few. Success is begging to be seized.

"Well, there ain't no use in tryin' 'em. Couldn't if I looked all night. Tell how rich and satisfyin' is a cup of Heart's Delight."

FUGITIVE FORGER

GIVES HIMSELF UP

Olean, May 21.—He wanted to go back to his native state to answer to charges of forgery, Fred Young, 23 years old, of Conover, Wis., informed police yesterday. He went to the police station and gave himself up as a fugitive from justice.

He cashed a number of forged checks in Wittenburg, Wis., he told. The largest amount obtained was $100. He also got $65 on one check and smaller amounts on others, he said. He then took a trip east and stopped at Olean. He intended to get money here the same way, he said, but he suddenly decided to go back home and try and settle for the worthless checks there. Police Chief John C. Drampsey notified Wisconsin authorities.

MODERN VERSION OF KNOX ARDEN

Hornell, May 21.—The story of Edith Arden, with slight variations, was re-enacted in Supreme Court here yesterday afternoon when S. Nelson Sawyer granted a divorce decree to the plaintiff in the case of Robert H. Taylor of Groveland. There was no defense.

Mr. Taylor and his wife were married in Hornell in 1911, according to the evidence. They lived together until 1914 and two children were born to them. In 1914 they parted and for some time thereafter Mrs. Taylor failed to hear from him. In 1918, believing him dead, she was married to William Martin in Buffalo. One of her children had been adopted by another family but the other was taken by Mr. Martin.

It was not long after she was married to Mr. Martin that her first husband again appeared, but instead of claiming his wife, he instituted the action for divorce. The two husbands were on the witness stand and also the plaintiff's brother, who testified that even his family had not heard from him since 1917.

PRESIDENT PROCLAIMS MAY 30 MEMORIAL DAY

Calls on Fellow Citizens to Pay Fitting Homage to Men Who Fought and Died for Country

Washington, May 21.—The annual Memorial Day proclamation setting aside May 30 as a holiday was issued by President Harding. The text follows:

"Whereas, this Nation has been conceived in prayer and devotion by men and women who were moved by God to found a nation from the lasting cornerstones; and whereas, these principles, purchased at the price of great sacrifice have been fostered by a worthy posterity; and, whereas, the great war has lately laid its costly demands upon our lands, now, therefore,

"I Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim Monday, the 30th day of May, a day already freighted with sacred and stimulated memories, a day of public memorial. I invite my fellow citizens fittingly to pay homage on this day to the noble dead, who sleep in homeland, beneath the sea or beyond in foreign fields, so that we who survive might enjoy the blessings of peace and happiness, ad to the end that liberty and justice, without which no nation can exist, shall live forever. "In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done in the District of Columbia this third day of May in the year of our Lord, 1921, and the Independence of the United States the 145th.

TO PLAY SHINGLEHOUSE SUNDAY, MAY 29TH

We have information that the strong Shinglehouse Independents will cross bats with the Smethport ball club this coming Sunday, May 29, which should afford a good game. Coach Tull is working between the showers to perfect a team that can give battle on this occasion. Nagle, the new man in town will take up the pitching burden and judging by his performance last Sunday in the four stanzas that he worked, from almost cold without having any warming up whatsoever. He has two very dependable "Pals" in Tom Clark and Bobbie Hull to assist him if Sunday finds him in need of more practice. The infield is composed of some good talent and the indications are that Smethport will need a team on the field that will ably defend their laurels in a fine manner. Hogan McCarthy, "Spark" Kohn, Gallagher, "Crow" McGowan and Coach Tull, compose the infield. The game will be called at 3:30 sharp. These games are proving a drawing card for the man who has to work all the week through. Turn out for the Sunday game.
